A week in the life of ... a church leader

Anyone interested in how a leader in one of Australia's largest churches spends his week should head to Forster on Saturday July 11.

The Rev. Niall Reid, the head of the Uniting Church's Synod of New South Wales and the ACT, will speak on "A week in the life of the Moderator" at Forster Tuncurry Uniting Church's Annual Dinner.

The third largest Christian denomination in Australia, the Uniting Church seeks to be courageous, inclusive and generous.

Each year, guest speakers at Forster Tuncurry's annual dinner represent a different part of the Uniting Church and speak about the church and where they think it is going.

Mr Reid will also preach during the church's worship service on Sunday July 12 (9am).

Forster Tuncurry Uniting Church's Annual Dinner will be held on Saturday July 11 (6pm for a 6:30pm start) at the Forster Uniting Worship Centre, corner of McIntosh and Lake Streets, Forster.

For more information about the weekend, contact the Rev. Audrey de Witte on 6555 3777 (<http://www.mncuca.org.au/congregs/forster.html>).
